

1 – Header

- Align icons to the far right
- Add spacing between icons so that they are not bunched together
- Change the shopping bag icon to “shopping cart” icon with count bubble

1 – Header

- When a user mouse over the “Login” icon make only show the login link .
- Only make Orders and Order History accessible when a user has logged-in and authenticated.

2 – Products

1 – Change first card to reflect Blue Crabs”

2– Change second card to reflect to reflect “Craw Fish”

3 – Change first card to reflect to reflect “Shrimp”

4- Remove all shopping cart icon and replace with information (i) icon that has language like “ Pricing is subject to change”

5- Format cards to look like the following example below.

Sale

Colossal Shrimp, 2 LB Bag (8-12 Pcs Per Lb)

$49.98

Add To Cart

Our Fresh Selection

Explore a curated range of high-quality fish and seafood, responsibly sourced and carefully handled for peak freshness.

<

1

Shrimp

$19.2 lb

4

Blue Crabs

$35.00 – $55.00 / dozen

View Pricing

2

Blue Crabs

$32.45 dozen

Live Crawfish

$8.99 / lb

View Pricing

3

Crawfish

$24.99 lb

Wild Caught Shrimp

$11.99 –n15.99 / lb

View Pricing

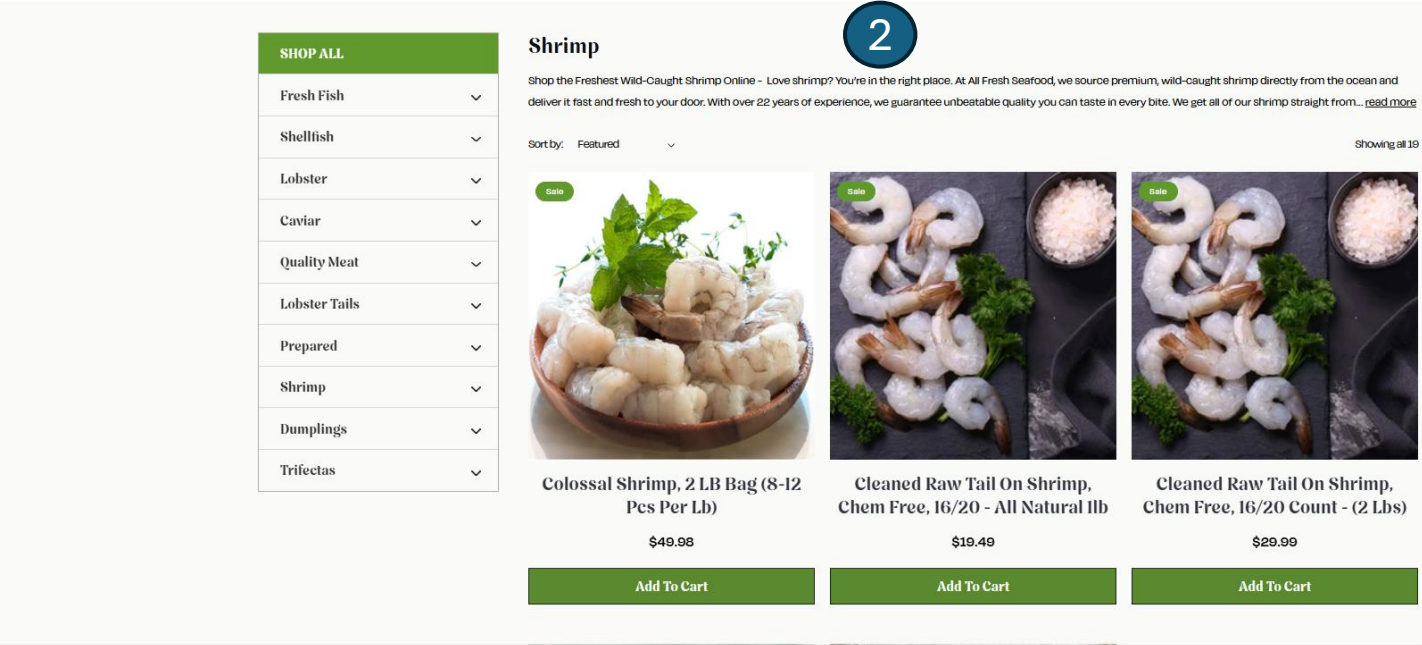

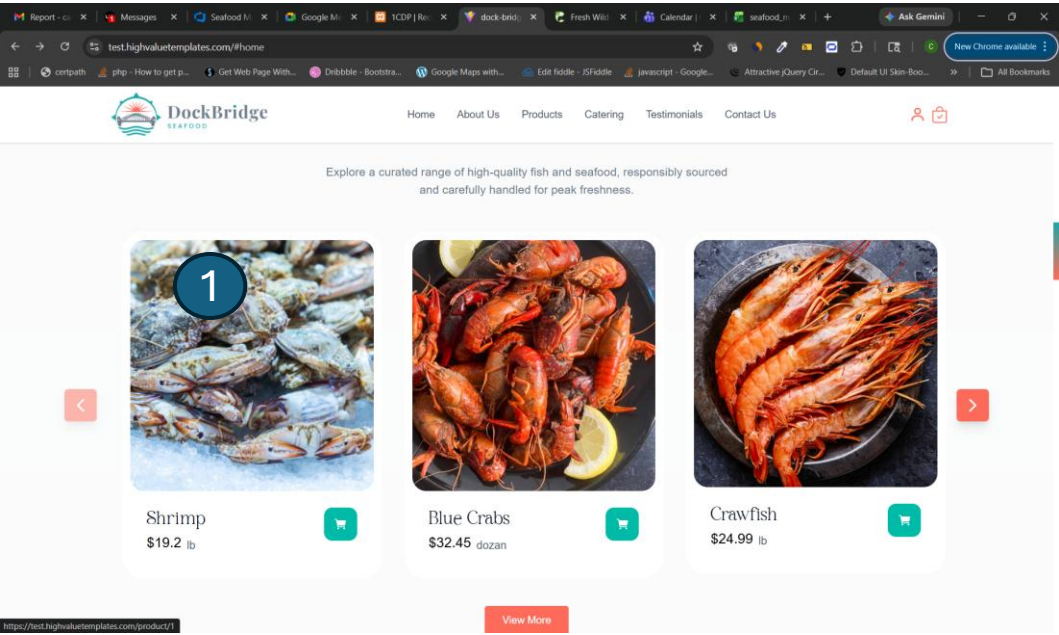

>

3 – Product Gallery

1 – When a user clicks on a seafood product the user should be redirected to their product gallery page.

2 – Layout the product details page in the example that I provided.

3 - When a user clicks on “Add to Cart” make sure that the product count reflects in the shopping cart bubble.

3 – Product Details

1 – When a user clicks on a seafood product the user should be redirected to their product details page.

2– Layout the product details page in the example that I provided.

3- When a user clicks on “Add to Cart” make sure that the product count reflects in the shopping cart bubble.

